Letters to the BAT-CAVE

Dear Editor: How are BATMAN and ROBIN able to drive the BATMOBILE in and out of the BAT-CAVE without being seen?

Carl Seyforth, Orem, Utah
(The BAT-CAVE's exit is located in a remote area, some distance from the Wayne mansion. It is so well camouflaged that it couldn't possibly be detected by any other means.—Ed.)

Dear Editor: When BATMAN gets too old to fight crime, will ROBIN take his place and become the new BATMAN? If so, who will take ROBIN's place?

Super Wells, Burlington, Vt.
(ROBIN does become BATMAN in a new, coming story, "THE SECOND BATMAN AND ROBIN TEAM," which will appear in the next issue of BATMAN COMICS, April #13. But we'll let you find out the details of the new ROBIN.—Ed.)

Dear Editor: When chasing criminals, BATMAN and ROBIN frequently perform some remarkable acrobatic feats. It seems to me acrobatics require plenty of training and practice. How do they manage to keep in trim?

Mort Mason, Sioux Falls, S. D.
(As their private gymnasium located in the Wayne mansion, BATMAN and ROBIN exercise and practice regularly to maintain top physical shape and to develop new acrobatic stunts. For their more complicated feats, such as swinging from buildings with the BAT-ROPE or leaping from great heights, they practice right out in the open.—Ed.)

Dear Editor: During their career, BATMAN and ROBIN have fought a number of monsters from other worlds. Which was the strongest one they ever battled here?

David Lane, Wheeling, W. Va.
(It's hard to say which was the strongest—but certainly one of the strongest was "THE JELLO-W CREATURE FROM SPACE," which appears in the March issue of DETECTIVE COMICS, #117.—Ed.)

Dear Editor: BATMAN and ROBIN can't wear their uniforms out in a cleaning shop. How do they manage to keep their clothes and pressed, always ready for use?

Edith Trapper, Manchester, N. H.
(That's one of the jobs of Alfred, their faithful butler.—Ed.)

Dear Editor: I notice that BATMAN and ROBIN give a lot of performances for charity benefits. Which is their favorite charity?

Charles Smith, Rochester, N. Y.
(BATMAN and ROBIN have no favorite charity. They try to distribute their money, time and services evenly among all worthy causes.—Ed.)

Dear Editor: BATMAN and ROBIN must get many "rush" calls for their services. How do they know which are the phony and which are genuine calls for help?

Kate Boland, Phoenix, Ariz.
(They usually call the BATMAN and ROBIN gas only be generated through the Gotham City Police Department. Commissioner Gordon and his staff, from long experience, can quickly determine which cases may require the services of the caped crime-fighters, and which calls come from crooks.—Ed.)

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine if there were differences in the prevalence of dental caries between children who had been exposed to fluoride varnish and those who had not. A total of 60 children from two different day care centers were included in the study. The children were divided into two groups: one group had received fluoride varnish treatment and the other group had not. The results showed that the prevalence of dental caries was significantly lower in the group that had received fluoride varnish treatment compared to the group that had not.
